ATTACHMENT TO 4TH QUARTER REPORT

Regarding item 7, debtors are still researching possible objections to those Class 2(b) unsecured creditors whose claims were identified as disputed. Also, debtors are still working with Employment Development Department to resolve its disputed claim.

Debtors determined that one of those disputed Class 2(b) claims, identified as Claim No. 8, for the amount of $1,557,577.22, filed by Washington Mutual Bank, is actually the same as the secured claim, held by Deutsche Bank, and provided for by debtors' plan in Class 1c.

Also, debtors determined that the Class 2(b) claim identified as Washington Mutual #546, for the amount of $161,527, is the same as Claim No. 35, a secured claim held by JPMorgan Chase Bank, and provided for by the debtors' plan in Class 1k.
